

Lincoln, Abraham

October 22, 1864

No envelope.

[Transcription of letter to Major General Sheridan
in thanks for his efforts during the Civil War, and especially on October 19, 1864, at the Battle of Cedar Creek.]

Executive Mansion

Washington, Oct. 22, 1864.

Major General Sheridan:

With great pleasure I tender to you and your brave Army, the thanks of the Nation, and my own personal admiration and gratitude, for the months operations in Shenandoah Valley; and especially for the splendid work of Oct 19, 1864.

Your Obt. Servt.,

Abraham Lincoln.

